

Interested party	Needs and expectations	EMS compliance obligation?	Responsible for EMS communications
------------------	------------------------	----------------------------	------------------------------------

The Log of Interested Parties provides a list of interested parties and their needs and expectations with respect to the University's Environmental Management and Energy Management Systems (EMS / EnMS). Highlighted fields indicate links to the Compliance Register.
(Prospective) staff and students	High standard of environmental performance and sustainability leadership across the University. Education for sustainable development embedded across the curriculum. Compliance with environmental legislation. An environment which promotes staff and student health and wellbeing. Achieve key environmental targets in energy, water, waste, and pollution. Regular awareness raising of environmental issues and promotion of sustainable working practices. Opportunities to influence and participate in environmental initiatives across the University.	No	Director of Sustainability EMS / EnMS Manager
Alumni	High standard of environmental performance and sustainability leadership across the University.	No	Director of Sustainability
Businesses and residents local to or affected by the University's activities	Compliance with environmental legislation. Community-friendly operational practices. Prevention of pollution, nuisance, and litter in the community.	Legal compliance – refer to 2.1.2 Compliance Register .	Director of Sustainability EMS / EnMS Manager
Higher Education sector	High standard of environmental performance and sustainability leadership across the University. Communication and sharing of best practice. Opportunities for collaboration and participation in environmental initiatives.	No	Director of Sustainability EMS / EnMS Manager

Interested party

