Trainees are expected to have at least one formal observation by the end of Term 1. This will be carried out as a joint learning observation between subject mentor and university tutor. Your trainee will arrange this with you.

The role of informal feedback is highly valued and trainees are encouraged to capture this as notes in their joint learning observation log. This includes, informal discussions on planning and teaching, mentor meetings and discussions with placement colleagues.

Trainees plan and deliver a sequence of 4-6 lessons for this task. The sequence of lesson plans should be annotated after delivery to show the following

- a. 2 examples of subject pedagogy and justification of your choice
- b. 2 examples of formative assessment and justification of your choice
- c. 2 references to evaluative notes on the sequence of your plans and the impact of the sequence
- d. 2 examples of inclusive practice and reference to the principles of inclusive practice supporting your choices
- e. 2 examples of where you have adapted/tweaked the sequence and why you did so

Trainees should use their annotations to critically evaluate practice and comment on emerging themes. You can support your mentee by observing their practice, providing feedback and engaging in critical debate about their practice.

Mentor drop in Friday

Joint Learning Observation – completed before 15th December 2023

Spring Action Plan – completed by trainee and university tutor by 15th December 2023

The first steps include establishing the mentoring relationship, agreeing protected meeting time supporting the mentee with induction activities.

Trainees are expected to have at least one formal observation by the end of Term 1. This will be carried out as a joint learning observation between the subject mentor and the subject specialist/personal tutor.

The PGCE Mentor Connect online space will be launched on Friday 24th November. You will be sent a link for this.

Thank you for supporting our trainees. We look forward to seeing you at training and please get in touch if you have any questions!
