The Chair of the Board presented their report summarising the performance review of the Vice Chancellor for the period 2020/21. The performance review focused on seven key areas of performance of strategic importance for the University, with reference to the main duties outlined in the Vice Chancellor's job description. The Chair's report included a range of documents to demonstrate different aspects of the Vice Chancellor's leadership.

As in the previous year, members recognised that the pandemic had provided a challenging environment in which to lead a complex organisation and members agreed that the Vice Chancellor had achieved his objective ~~the~~ at the start of the pandemic for the University to be an 'Educational hot
